Mr. Alfred Kohlberg

Dear Mr. Kohlberg:

It was indeed thoughtful of you to address me on my appointment; the prospect of becoming more useful is especially stimulating in such straitened times as these.

In response to your specific query on the China policy committee to which you refer in your letter of June 11th to Senator Morse, I find that at no time whatsoever did the Central Intelligence Agency form such a committee, nor has it ever employed individually the persons whose names you listed there.

Sincerely,

F. Trubee Davison
Assistant Director for Personnel
